

1916 Commemorative Cycle - Cycle the path of the Volunteers

Dublin City Council and South Dublin County Council have joined forces to host a 1916 commemorative cycle highlighting the use of bicycles by the Volunteers in 1916. Participants will make their way from Pearse Museum in Rathfarnham and travel to Eamonn Ceannt Park in Crumlin. Participants will be treated to historical information en route.

Sunday 19th June at 11am
Meeting at Pearse Museum, St.
Enda's Park, Rathfarnham, travelling to Eamonn Ceannt Park, Dublin 12

Return cycle optional

For more information or to register please visit www.eventbrite.ie and search
'1916 Cycle'

